

Continuing Education Requirements for Georgia Licensed Professional Counselors (And How to Stay on Track)

As a licensed professional counselor (LPC) in the state of Georgia, it is your responsibility to adhere to continuing education requirements each period in order to renew your license. Beyond license renewal being key to you maintaining your practice, continuing education is essential to stay abreast of what is happening in your field – something your clients will always appreciate you taking seriously. Education is how we all continue to learn and further hone our skills and expertise, so it's certainly something to be celebrated. Though education is fantastic, keeping on track with the many hours you need to fulfill can be a challenge. Thankfully, there is a fantastic resource available to help you with that. Before we dive into the resource, let's start by outlining what is required of Georgia LPCs in order to renew their license each year.

Licensee Requirements for Georgia Licensed Professional Counselors

Licensed professional counselors in the state of Georgia are held to the same continuing education requirements as their social worker and marriage and family therapy counterparts. That requirement is 35 hours of continuing education ahead of the September 30 license expiration date of every even-numbered year. Of the required 35 hours, five of which must be specifically related to ethics in the field in order for a renewal application to be accepted. Additionally, 15 hours need to be "core," meaning directly related to professional counseling, while the other 15 can be "related," which means in the realm of counseling, but with flexibility for licensees to take courses or programs they feel they would benefit from professionally. For added flexibility, licensees can earn up to 10 hours of their 35 by participating in pre-recorded programs or courses, though, the other 25 need to be taken in a live, interactive, format.

Key Takeaways:

- Georgia LPCs need to fulfill a requirement of 35 hours of continuing education every two years.
- Five of the 35 hours must be regarding professional ethics.
- Licenses expire on September 30 of even-numbered years.
