

Continuing Education Requirements for Nebraska Psychologists (And How to Stay on Track)

As a licensed psychologist in the state of Nebraska, it is your responsibility to adhere to continuing education requirements every period in order to renew your license. Beyond license renewal being key to you maintaining your practice, continuing education is essential to stay abreast of what is happening in psychology – something your clients will always appreciate you taking seriously. Education is how we all continue to learn and further hone our skills and expertise, so it's certainly something to be celebrated. Though education is fantastic, keeping on track with the many hours you need to fulfill can be a challenge. Thankfully, there is a fantastic resource available to help you with that. Before we dive into the resource, let's start by outlining what is required of Nebraska psychologist in order to renew their license each year.

Licensee Requirements for Nebraska Psychologists

Licensed psychologists in Nebraska are required to complete 24 hours of continuing education every two years, ahead of a licensee's posted expiration date. All of the required 24 hours must be specifically related to the practice of psychology and be earned through an approved continuing education provider, which is any of the listed providers: American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (or a state chapter), American Counselors Association, National Board for Certified Counselors, American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation, Nebraska Medical Association, Nebraska Nurses Association, National Association of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselors, National Association of Social Workers (or a state chapter), American Psychological Association (or a state chapter). As a final requirement, three of the 24 hours that are required must be on the topic of ethics in psychology.

Key Takeaways:

- Nebraska psychologists must complete 24 hours of continuing education every 24 months.
- Three of the required 24 need to be regarding ethics, specifically.

Given psychologists are likely to achieve their continuing education certificates in increments, from various workshops, conventions, agencies, and institutions, there is a lot of documentation to keep track of (potentially 24 or more certificates throughout the course of the two-year time period). As proof is required when you apply for renewal, it's imperative you keep all of those certificates in a safe place – easily accessible and easy to track your progress. CE Hub is the safe place you need to work through your continuing education with ease.

What is CE Hub?

CE Hub is an app built specifically for psychologists. Recognizing the difficulty that is storing continuing education certificates and keeping track of your hours, CE Hub was created to take the stress out of continuing education requirements. Instead of worrying throughout the period that you may not be on track, or perhaps that you may have lost a document or two, CE Hub provides you the peace of mind you need to enjoy the learning process. Using the platform is simple: you sign up, upload your continuing education certificates as you obtain them, then CE Hub handles the rest. All of your continuing education credits are tracked for you, and you even receive a reminder when it's time to renew your license. Alleviate the stress of continuing education requirements by taking advantage of CE Hub today!
