

Continuing Education Requirements for Oregon Licensed Social Workers (And How to Stay on Track)

As a licensed clinical social worker (LCSW) in the state of Oregon, it is your responsibility to adhere to continuing education requirements each period in order to renew your license. Beyond license renewal being key to you maintaining your practice, continuing education is essential to stay abreast of what is happening in your field – something your clients will always appreciate you taking seriously. Education is how we all continue to learn and further hone our skills and expertise, so it's certainly something to be celebrated. Though education is fantastic, keeping on track with the many hours you need to fulfill can be a challenge. Thankfully, there is a fantastic resource available to help you with that. Before we dive into the resource, let's start by outlining what is required of Oregon LCSWs in order to renew their license.

Licensee Requirements for Oregon Licensed Social Workers

Licensed clinical social workers in the state of Oregon are expected to complete 40 hours of continuing education every two years if they wish to renew their license upon its expiration date. Of the required 40 hours, six hours must be regarding ethics (which cannot be carried over). The Board does allow licensees to carry over up to 10 general hours, but ethics hours must be dated within the renewal cycle. Only hours obtained through accepted activities will be approved with a renewal application. For a full list of all accepted credentialing bodies, reference the list posted here. As a final note: licensees are subject to randomized audits, so it's advised licensees always maintain record of their continuing education certificates.
