

Continuing Education Requirements for Rhode Island Licensed Professional Counselors (And How to Stay on Track)

As a licensed mental health counselor (LMHC) in the state of Rhode Island, it is your responsibility to adhere to continuing education requirements each period in order to renew your license. Beyond license renewal being key to you maintaining your practice, continuing education is essential to stay abreast of what is happening in your field – something your clients will always appreciate you taking seriously. Education is how we all continue to learn and further hone our skills and expertise, so it's certainly something to be celebrated. Though education is fantastic, keeping on track with the many hours you need to fulfill can be a challenge. Thankfully, there is a fantastic resource available to help you with that. Before we dive into the resource, let's start by outlining what is required of Rhode Island LPCs in order to renew their license every cycle.

Licensee Requirements for Rhode Island Licensed Professional Counselors

Licensed mental health counselors in Rhode Island share the same continuing education requirements as MFTs in the state. Both are required to earn at least 40 hours of continuing education every two years if they wish to renew their license for another cycle. All of the required hours need to be from approved providers, such as the American Mental Health Counselors Association or the American Counseling Association. A full list of approved providers can be found in point B. of Regulation 11.3.8. As a final requirement, a minimum of 20 credits must be from "Category I" education, which is formal education like graduate or post graduate courses, workshops, formal online activities, and institutes.

CE Hub is the safe place you need to work through your continuing education with ease.
